

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 29, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

From Pope Francis' address for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees,
August 5, 2013:

“Not infrequently, the arrival of migrants, displaced persons, asylum-seekers and refugees gives rise to suspicion and hostility. There is a fear that society will become less secure, that identity and culture will be lost, that competition for jobs will become stiffer and even that criminal activity will increase. . . .

“A change of attitude towards migrants and refugees is needed on the part of everyone, moving away from attitudes of defensiveness and fear, indifference and marginalization—all typical of a throwaway culture—towards attitudes based on a culture of encounter, the only culture capable of building a better, more just and fraternal world. . . .

“Every human being is a child of God! He or she bears the image of Christ! We ourselves need to see, and then to enable others to see, that migrants and refugees do not only represent a problem to be solved, but are brothers and sisters to be welcomed, respected and loved. They are an occasion that Providence gives us to help build a more just society, . . . a more fraternal world, and a more open and evangelical Christian community.

“Migration can offer possibilities for a new evangelization, open vistas for the growth of a new humanity foreshadowed in the paschal mystery: a humanity for which every foreign country is a homeland, and every homeland is a foreign country.”

We are all children of God. So let's pray for every marginalized and displaced person who is searching for a more secure future. May God protect them from all the dangers that surround them!

“Thank you, Lord, for hearing the cry of the poor, the refugee, and the outsider!”

Called to Serve,

Deacon Mark Race, Administrator

DID YOU KNOW?

Children use a lot of gear – from toys and sports equipment to technology. For parents, this means keeping an eye on product recalls. Recalls alert consumers to an unsafe feature or defect that could cause harm, and offer the opportunity to have that defect corrected, or a new product shipped out. Parents can use product recall search engines and online checklists to keep an eye on their children's toys and take action if any recalls are issued. For a copy of the VIRTUS© article “Stay Up-to-Date on Product Recalls,” visit: <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx> or call 213.637.7508.
